ABOUT THE SPEAKER

"Art is Like Chocolate for the Brain"

Dr. Cohen is author of The Creative Age and director of the Center on Aging, Health, and Humanities at George Washington University. He is a graduate of Harvard College and Georgetown University School of Medicine and has a doctorate in gerontology from the Union Institute. He is also author of more than 150 publications in the field of aging, including several textbooks and two major books on the brain. In The Creative Age, he shows how the unique combination of age, experience, and creativity can produce exciting inner growth and infinite potential for everyone.
